SATURDAY, OCTOBER 20, 1866.

MARYLAND—BALTIMORE.

In the city of Baltimore the persons designated to hold elections are appointed by the Police Commissioners, a board created by law, and chosen, we believe, by the people of the city. In the other districts of the State these election officers are appointed by the Governor.

The Police Commissioners of Baltimore are Republicans, as are a large majority of their constituents. Gov. SWANN is a friend and supporter of President JOHNSON. The Commissioners appointed Republicans, while in every instance, as is stated by the Baltimore American, the Governor appointed men of the opposite party.

Parties in Maryland are not, as with us, divided into Republicans and Democrats, or Copperheads, but into Union men and rebels; but the Union men are generally Republicans of the most radical type. The opposing parties are more widely separated, and more bitterly hostile, than in any other State.

There is a registration law in that State requiring every citizen who is registered as a voter to take an oath that he in no way aided the rebellion, which excludes thousands who were active rebels from the polls. It is to get rid of the obstruction to rebel suffrage that the Governor has been applied to to remove the Police Commissioners of Baltimore.

The Governor is a candidate for the United States Senate; but unless he can, by some means, secure the votes of the twenty-one members from Baltimore he has no chance of an election. It is thought that if he can, on some pretext, get rid of the Police Commissioners, and thus sweep away the Union Republican election officers, and open the way to rebel voters, his friends might carry that city.

We see that he has summoned the Commissioners to Annapolis to have a hearing; but what the result may be we shall not undertake to predict. But everything indicates a warm time in that city should Governor SWANN take it upon himself to interfere with the law and with its established institutions.

A Local Place of Note.

The time has been, when, if a person desired a first class photograph—one they wished to preserve through the fitful changes of years, they thought it imperatively necessary to visit the Quaker or Empire city, where those who had acquired a high reputation as artists, were only to be found. This necessity if it ever existed as such, has become a matter of the past, since B. L. H. Dabbs has located in our city. This gentleman's pictures not only came fully up to the Eastern standard of excellence, but in many respects exceed in finish and brilliancy of coloring, the best works of Brady. This is no idle boast, as those who have visited Dabbs' exhibition rooms, No. 58 St. Clair street, can conscientiously attest the verity of our statement. For a picture that brings out all the expression of the subject, be it animate or inanimate, and may truthfully be called a likeness, you must go to this establishment.

Even if a person does not wish their pictures taken, we would advise them to visit Dabbs', for no other place in the city affords such facilities for spending a pleasant afternoon, if there can be any pleasure derived from a tour through a gallery, the walls of which are adorned by artistic creations, such as we seldom have the opportunity of seeing.

A Local Place of Note.

ONE of our Democratic exchanges, in an effort to console its afflicted readers under their late defeat, resorts to that never-failing source of consolation, "the good time coming," and exclaims: "Victory yet awaits us, if we remain true to country, to principle, and to ourselves." No doubt about it; but the trouble with what is called the Democracy is, that for many years they have not been true to any of these things. It was because they gave up to party and to slavery what was due to country and to liberty, and gave up to a haughty aristocracy and finally to traitors what belonged to their government, to the people and to themselves, that their party is now overwhelmed with disaster and disgrace.

Funeral of Hon. John Van Buren.

NEW YORK, October 19.—The funeral of Mr. John Van Buren took place at Grace Church this morning, and was attended by a very large congregation. Among those present were Judges of the Supreme and Superior Courts and Court of Common Pleas, members of the Manhattan Club and Tammany Society, Mr. Peter Cooper and Mr. Cooper, Jr., Mr. Julian C. Verplanck, Judge Cowan, Mr. Charles G. Kirkland, Dr. Vinton, of Trinity Church, a number of prominent members of the Bar, and other distinguished gentlemen. Long before the hour named for the funeral service to take place the church was filled, and many were turned away from the doors. About half-past ten the family and relatives of the deceased, consisting of Mrs. Van Buren, Colonel Van Buren and daughters, and several nephews and nieces, arrived at the church, and soon after the funeral procession entered. At the church porch the procession was met by Revs. Drs. Morgan and Harwood, who preceded it down the central aisle, the coffin being supported by the chancel rails. The usual services of the Episcopal Church were then proceeded with, the music of the fine church adding solemnity to the occasion. The services concluded, the remains of Mr. Van Buren were delivered to his family for transmission to Albany, where they will be interred in the family vault.

WASHINGTON, October 19.—The Commissioner of Patents has decided that the Yale patent upon cast, chilled and wrought iron burglar and fire-proof safes and vaults, dated October 19th, 1852, ought not to be extended or renewed for a new term, or a term of seven years from to-day, on the ground that the invention and improvements contained in and covered by that patent were the invention and improvements made by Lewis Tillie, of Troy, New York, as the original and first inventor, and embraced in and covered by the re-issue of his (Tillie's) patent, dated November 27th, 1865, it being a re-issue of a patent granted on his application July 15th, 1851.

The following communication has just been received at the State Department:

CONSULATE OF THE UNITED STATES, }
GUAYAMAS, Oct. 11, 1866. }

Sir—I have the honor to inform you that the evacuation of this port and the State of Sonora, by the French squadron and troops, will take place on the 14th inst. I have been officially informed of this fact by the A lmiral in command, the preparations for embarkation which has been going on for a few days and the fact of the withdrawal of these forces have created a panic among the population, both native and foreign, and consequence the steamer which leaves on the 13th, for Mazatlan and San Francisco, will be crowded beyond her capacity. The French portion of the community left on Monday last, as they have compromised, or who have given support to the Empire, are making every exertion to escape the almost certain retribution which awaits them at the hands of the Liberals. merchants and respectable families not compromised in these political difficulties, apprehending danger from the lower classes during the interim of the withdrawal of the French troops and the entering of the Liberal forces, have sought the protection of the Consulate here, as it is not accorded by this Government to support or move in a plan to protect the place from rapine and murder. I informed the Admiral and the Commander of the place that I would communicate the fact and the time of the withdrawal of the troops to Governor Pesquera, Chief of the Liberal forces of the State, in order that he might be ready to take possession immediately and thereby guarantee order and security. With the approval of these officers I have dispatched a messenger to General Pesquira, with this information, and an appeal to his generosity in behalf of those who are threatened with ruin, and who are now hurrying to flee the country. I trust his answer will be conciliatory and humane. The knowledge of of the fact of my having communicated with General Pesquira has yesterday reached the place, and many hope yet to be able to remain in their homes.

The steamer for San Francisco will leave on the 13th, when I may be able to report the city quiet and again in the possession of the officers of the Constitutional Government.

I have the honor to be, your very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
EDWARD CONNER, U. S. Consul.

To Wm. H. Seward, Secretary of State.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE, }
WASHINGTON, October 17, 1866. }

To His Excellency, the Governor of ——

SIR—On the 6th inst. I had the honor to address a letter to you informing you that schemes were on foot to induce freedmen to emigrate to foreign countries, and particularly to Peru, and suggesting that loyal and moral means at your command should be used to prevent what was believed to be an attempt under specious pretenses to introduce into that country practical imposition upon the ignorant freedmen of our country. Referring to that communication, I have now the honor to inform you in like manner that the Minister of the Manhattan Club and Tammany Society, Mr. Peter Cooper and Mr. Cooper, Jr., Mr. Julian C. Attempt to Suborn the Officers of National Banks to Help Carry the New York Election.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—The Post has the following which it styles "An Infamous Proceeding:" "It is said that certain persons have arrived in the city from Washington on an errand which will not commend itself to the good opinion of honest men. The statement which we have received is to the effect that they are visiting the different banks which have deposites of funds belonging to the Treasury, and saying to the officers of the banks that to the advantage of keeping the public money, and we ask you on your part to help in raising a fund to be used in carrying the approaching election for the Democratic candidates. TROY, N. S. Hand G. W. Chapmen, but leased and occupied by A. A. White, for manufacturing broad-cloth. The fire caught at six o'clock, from the friction of a shaft in the wheel-room, and burned until twelve o'clock last night. The total loss will not fall far short of $50,000, principally covered by insurance. About forty operatives were employed at the time of the fire, although the capacity of the mill was much greater.

New York City Democratic Congressional Nominations.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—The Post gives the following account of the city Congressional nominations: Wm. F. Dodge has declined the Republican nomination for the 8th district. Gen. John A. Foster, Henry G. Stebbins and Henry Clews, are mentioned in connection with the nomination. The Conservatives of the 8th district have already placed Mr. Stebbins in the field. The Tammany Hall Congressional Convention met last night to make nominations in the 8th district. John Fox was nominated instead of Gen. Cox. The McKeon candidate, Mr. Ben. Wood, having declined, the lawful Democratic voters of the district are now generally rallying between the Tammany and anti Tammany candidates. No nomination was made in the 5th district. John Morrissey, now one of the principal leaders of the Democracy. Despite all of the city is understood to have the pledge of the nomination, but the present incumbent, General Nelson Taylor, is making a strong effort to secure the support of the party. Emanuel B. Hart was nominated in the Sixth district.

The Mozart Hall Convention also met and nominated Robert Price.

The Tammany Convention of the Seventh district nominated Dan'l F. Tiemann. Winthrop Chandler, who was defeated for Congress in the fall, will be opposed, probably, by G. F. Steinheimer on the Republican side.

Tammany Hall has received the Tammany nomination in the Eighth district. He has also the McKeon commination.

The Tammany Convention of the Ninth district nominated David S. Jackson, Mr. Anson Herrick having declined. This makes a triangular contest between Wm. A. Docling, Republican, Fernando Wood, Mozart, and Mr. Jackson.

It was supposed that Hon. S. S. Cox would be nominated in the Ninth district in lieu of Mr. Fox, but Mr. Cox declined, though offered the nomination.

The Ocean Storms Still Continuing.

FORTRESS MONROE, October 17.—The storm along the coast still continues, but, as yet, it is a subject for congratulation that but one or two serious marine disasters have been recorded. The harbor is full of vessels, northward bound, who have been detained by it. The barque George E. Kingman, Captain Hammond, thirty days from Frontera, Mexico, arrived here this morning, bound to New York. She encountered the hurricane of the 2d inst., in the straits of Florida, lasting forty-eight hours. On the 12th of August there was a hurricane on the coast of Mexico, lasting about twelve hours. Seven vessels, which were on the coast loading, or preparing to load, went ashore, one of which was the barque Caleb Baker, of New York. The English brig Eclipse, from Guadalonpe for New York; schooner J. L. Newton, for Jersey City; schooner T. E. Mitchell, from Mobile for New York; schooner Georgetown, bound to Boston, with cargoes, have returned here for a harbor, and will probably be driving to reach their destination. They got as far as Bamegat, and were then driven back by the fierce northerly gale.

Claims on the Prisoners' Fund.

WASHINGTON, October 19.—In conformity with the limitation of time for the presentation of claims against the fund now under the charge of the Commissary General of prisoners, principally by persons who served in the Union army, Hon. Mr. Washburn, Chairman of the Committee of Ways and Means; Hon. Mr. Wadsworth, of Massachusetts, Financial Agent of the Treasury Department; Hon. Mr. Needham, of New York; Hon. Mr. Tuckey, President of the Reading Railroad Company; Hon. Mr. Walker, of Springfield, Massachusetts, and Hon. Mr. Lefevre, of Logland, Member of the Ohio Legislature.

These gentlemen remained until the races were concluded, seemingly as thoroughly interested in the results as any who had money at stake.

To-day the racing season will conclude with a match in harness, the best three in five, between Red Rover, Cold Water Billy, Grey Eagle, and the celebrated trotting horse, Silas Rich. The last is undoubtedly the best four mile trotter in the world.

Burglaries in the Third Ward—Two Houses Entered and Robbed.

The shoe store of J. Russell, situate on Pennsylvania avenue, near the corner of Chatham street, was entered by burglars on Thursday night or Friday morning, and six dollars in cash, and three hundred and sixty dollars in boots and shoes stolen. The thief or thieves effected an entrance through a window on the first floor in the rear, the shutter of which they forced open by means of a pair of pincers, or other implement, and a butcher knife, which was found under the window yesterday morning. This knife was subsequently recognized by Mrs. Wetzel, of Wylie street, corner of High and Wylie streets, as belonging to her. This lady's dwelling was also robbed on the same night of a couple of pairs of ladies second-hand gaiters, a dozen of cans of fruit, a pair of gold spectacles, and several other articles of minor importance.

Mr. Russell, who has but just started in business, will feel keenly, and will be somewhat embarrassed, at this unexpected loss of his little stock. He has our kindest sympathy, and we trust the scoundrels who robbed him will be soon brought to justice.

From New Orleans.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—A Herald's New Orleans special says: The Louisiana radicals are fearfully afraid over the discovery, by Detectives of a plot, several days since, to spike four pieces of artillery, which they claim belong to rebel associations, but which in reality are the property of the Knights of Arabia, who are believed to be at the corner of High and Wylie streets, as belonging to her. This lady's dwelling was also robbed on the same night of a couple of pairs of ladies second-hand gaiters, a dozen of cans of fruit, a pair of gold spectacles, and several other articles of minor importance.

Mr. Russell, who has but just started in business, will feel keenly, and will be somewhat embarrassed, at this unexpected loss of his little stock. He has our kindest sympathy, and we trust the scoundrels who robbed him will be soon brought to justice.

Petty Spite! Against the Negroes at Charleston.

AUGUSTA, GA., October 19.—During a flag presentation to a zouave volunteer company of freedmen, at Charleston, yesterday, General Canby arrested those wearing shoulder straps and side arms, in violation of the general orders of the department, which prohibit military organizations of any kind in South Carolina.

Another Munificent—Donation from Geo. Peabody—$150,000 to Harvard College.

NEW YORK, October 19.—George Peabody has given one hundred and fifty thousand dollars to the Harvard College corporation, for the purpose of building a museum and professorship of archaeology and etymology in connection with that university.

Threats to Burn the Rest of Quebec.

QUEBEC, C. E., October 19.—The weather continues beautiful, which is the greatest possible blessing to the sufferers. It is understood that the troops have been ordered to shoot all incendiaries found in the streets. Considerable excitement prevailed, and as the horses neared the stretch, the spectators became wild with excitement, shouting and cheering vociferously. Magoozler won this heat in splendid style, making it in 2:22¼, Dexter coming in not a full length behind.

SECOND HEAT.—For the first half mile of this heat Magoozler led, making it in 1:09. On the home stretch of the second round, however, he fell behind, and Dexter won by two lengths, making the score in 2:21¾.

THIRD HEAT.—Dexter led almost from the start, making the first half mile in 1:09, and winning the heat in 2:23½. Patchen had roaned to his work, and came in second, leading Magoozler by half a length.

FOURTH HEAT.—Dexter had this heat almost his own way, leaving the other two easily behind him. The heat was won by him in 2:22, Patchen coming in second again, a short distance ahead of Magoozler.

This won the race for Dexter, Magoozler being declared the winner of the second prize, and the other money divided.

As we have said, the most intense excitement prevailed throughout the race, and betting was very rapid, large amounts of money changing hands. Dexter was the favorite from the first, and after the second heat almost any odds were offered by his friends.

So closed the last day's of the tournament that has put the entire sporting world on its qui vive. Dexter and Patchen leave our city to-day, and trot next, as we understand, at Trenton, N. J.

DISTINGUISHED VISITORS.

During the afternoon the Judges' stand was visited by a delegation from the company of distinguished visitors just now in the city. Among those present were Lafayette Foster, of Connecticut, Vice President of the United States; Hon. Mr. Hooper, of Massachusetts, Member of Ways and Means Committee; Hon. Mr. Wadsworth, of Massachusetts, Financial Agent of the Treasury Department; Hon. Mr. Needham, of New York; Hon. Mr. Tuckey, President of the Reading Railroad Company; Hon. Mr. Walker, of Springfield, Massachusetts, and Hon. Mr. Lefevre, of Logland, Member of the Ohio Legislature.

These gentlemen remained until the races were concluded, seemingly as thoroughly interested in the results as any who had money at stake.

To-day the racing season will conclude with a match in harness, the best three in five, between Red Rover, Cold Water Billy, Grey Eagle, and the celebrated trotting horse, Silas Rich. The last is undoubtedly the best four mile trotter in the world.

Burglaries in the Third Ward—Two Houses Entered and Robbed.

The shoe store of J. Russell, situate on Pennsylvania avenue, near the corner of Chatham street, was entered by burglars on Thursday night or Friday morning, and six dollars in cash, and three hundred and sixty dollars in boots and shoes stolen. The thief or thieves effected an entrance through a window on the first floor in the rear, the shutter of which they forced open by means of a pair of pincers, or other implement, and a butcher knife, which was found under the window yesterday morning. This knife was subsequently recognized by Mrs. Wetzel, of Wylie street, corner of High and Wylie streets, as belonging to her. This lady's dwelling was also robbed on the same night of a couple of pairs of ladies second-hand gaiters, a dozen of cans of fruit, a pair of gold spectacles, and several other articles of minor importance.

Mr. Russell, who has but just started in business, will feel keenly, and will be somewhat embarrassed, at this unexpected loss of his little stock. He has our kindest sympathy, and we trust the scoundrels who robbed him will be soon brought to justice.

An Insane Woman Lost.

MRS. Adeline Conick, wife of David Conick, of Conneaut township, Crawford county, has been hopelessly insane for the last twelve years, and on Thursday, Oct. 4th she left her home and has not returned. She was last seen on Saturday following, in the vicinity of Frey Chapel, in Conneaut township, since which time, although every effort has been made to discover her whereabouts, she has not been heard from. Mrs. C. is about forty-five years of age, below the medium size, and had on, when she left, a dark calico dress, without crinoline, and a dark hood. Any information concerning her whereabouts will be thankfully received by David Conick, Stamburg, Crawford county, Pa.

Not Dead.—

The idea has prevailed, for a day or two past, that Rev. Father John Hickey, for four years past connected with the Cathedral in this city, died in Baltimore, of heart disease. Our attention was called to it, and we learn that the Rev. Hickey deceased is not Rev. Father Hickey, of this city, but a resident of Baltimore. Credence was given to the report from the fact that the latter has been in Baltimore for some time past. We are exceedingly glad to be able to contradict the prevailing false impression.

Cross Suits.—

Michael Callaghan came to the office of Alderman Taylor yesterday, and preferred a charge of assault and battery against John O'Donnell. The prosecutor alleges that O'Donnell provoked a quarrel between Callaghan and his wife, and then lent to the feminine a helping hand to "wallop him" as he elegantly expressed it. O'Donnell was arrested, and after furnishing bail for a hearing, instituted legal proceedings against Michael for surety of the peace. The latter also gave bail.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

(ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS ON THIRD PAGE.)

The Field Day of Horse Flesh—The Great Race Yesterday—The Speedy Horses—Magoozler Does Well—Dexter Does Better and Wins—Distinguished Visitors.

Yesterday was undoubtedly the greatest turf day ever experienced hereabouts. As our readers know, the announcement had been made that Dexter and Patchen, Jr., the world famous trotters, and Magoozler, the scarcely less renowned pacer, would compete in harness, the best three in five, for three prizes, the first of $1,500, the second of $700, and the third of $300. The sporting world knew that some of the best chances for speculation that had been offered, was offered in the proposed trial. Those that were not sporting men knew that the most intensely exciting contest they had ever witnessed was sure to result from the announcement, and the consequence was that both classes were equally interested, and the event was waited for with the utmost impatience and anxiety.

Yesterday, the day appointed, shone out as beautiful and favorable as if it had been designed purposely for the contest. The weather could not have been pleasanter, and everybody, with all his relations, seemed determined to avail themselves of the advantage offered and see the races. At an early hour in the afternoon Pennsylvania avenue was thronged with people, on horseback, in all sorts of vehicles and crowding the street cars, on their way to Oakland Park. The tide of progress all set in one direction, and one going out could not help wondering, as he looked upon the crowds, where Major Van Voorhis would stow them all. Before the hour of starting, the Park, spacious as it is, was well filled, not less than five thousand persons being present, no small per centage of the spectators being ladies on horseback and in car riages.

The track had been carefully prepared the evening before, and was in perfect condition yesterday. Whatever mis

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 20, 1866.

TRIAL OF JEFFERSON DAVIS.

Among the other results of the October elections may be counted the apparent inclination of President JOHNSON to have Mr. DAVIS brought to trial for his crimes. For several months prior to those elections it was manifest a favorable opportunity was sought to liberate him on parole, as a preliminary step to the final dismissal of all proceedings against him. The judgments of the ballot-box rendered in four States are not only consequential in themselves, but are really prophetic of other judgments, similar in kind, soon to follow. No room is left for that high-handed career upon which the Administration was eager to enter. To attempt it would be held by all loyal people as revolutionary, and the attempt would be met not by such patient and moderate measures of redress as doubting and cautious minds would suggest, but by such incisive and heroic measures as would preserve the rights of the people, if need be at the sacrifice of the letter of the Constitution. In this view of the case the President addressed the Attorney General a letter, conveniently dated three days before the elections, but not answered till three days after, inviting information as to what could be done by the Executive to hasten the trial of the great offender.

What the true men of the nation want is not a trial which, commenced with solemn pomp and unwonted stateliness, shall end in broad farce. Such a trial as is demanded could have been had months ago, and ought to have been assured. The delay has been in violation of the spirit of the law. A man, accused of crime, has a right to demand a speedy trial, or a relinquishment of the charges against him. In this particular Mr. DAVIS has the same rights as any other citizen. He has, through his counsel, signified his readiness and desire to meet the charges made against him. It is but reasonable that this desire of his should be complied with.

If anybody supposes Mr. DAVIS can be convicted in Virginia, no matter how strong the evidence or how clear the rulings against him, that individual misunderstands how universal sympathy with the rebellion is in that State, and how effectually it sways the actions of the great majority of men likely to be summoned as jurors in the District Courts of the United States in the various States. Where a fair trial cannot be had, in any case, owing to the perversity or violence of local sentiment, it is common for the proper Legislature to pass a bill authorizing and commanding a change of venue. The design of such special legislation is simply to secure the ends of public justice. Congress has analogous powers and responsibilities. It can provide that Mr. DAVIS shall be tried in any district it shall see fit to designate. The exercise of such discretion could not fairly be regarded as unjustifiably individous or unnecessarily harsh. In such event the trial would proceed regularly in conformity to the established rules of adjudication. The result would be forced neither by the Court nor by the jury. Justice would be done, and whatever might be the verdict, the laws would be vindicated.

When the President makes up his mind that Mr. DAVIS shall have such a trial as the gravity of his offences and the majesty of the law require, he will find little difficulty in adjusting details.

FRANCE.

All reliable accounts agree that the health of the Emperor of the French is not only unsatisfactory, but so enfeebled as to excite serious apprehensions. These forebodings do not relate to the probable departure of one who has acted a great part in the drama of events; but to the uncertainty of the succession. The heir apparent is a child, and it is a grave question whether he will be allowed to succeed peacefully or at all to his father's sceptre. Whether or not the two branches of the Bourbon dynasty have compromised their rivalries, is not publicly known; but it is probable both of them would contribute to a condition of affairs in which a Napoleonic succession should be impossible, trusting to fortune for a result favorable to their aspirations. Then the republicans, often deceived but never hopeless, would manifestly be disposed to try what fortunate chances might be revealed by the disruption of the imperial regime. Against all these stand opposed the careful and sensitive men of business—they who hold that government to be the best under which the opportunities and profits of trafic are amplest. These can be relied upon to maintain the existing order. The result, therefore, seems to depend on the fickleness of popular opinion. In Paris, as has been often demonstrated, a breath may make or unmake a dynasty. What is in the womb of the Future, can only be told at the moment of birth. Hence, France and all Europe stand in profound expectation.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

Governor ORR seems to be in favor of the ratification of the Constitutional Amendment, and is reported to have said in a letter, that if the remaining Northern elections shall result in favor of that policy, he will immediately convoke the Legislature for that purpose, and thus settle the question in the only way it can be settled. We think that in this view Governor ORR represents a large and influential part of the leading minds of that State. But the old race of fire-eaters still exists. General WADE HAMPTON is a representative man of that class. He declares that "shame would cling to us forever if we admit that we have been guilty of treason," and that "the South is and has been, loyal in the proper sense of the word." Of course he and his set will resist the amendment; but we are inclined to believe that the sober sense of such men as Governor ORR will ultimately triumph over the madness of the fire-eaters. In fact, had it not been for the encouragement they received from ANDREW JOHNSON, the latter class would have been powerless long ago. He it was who kept the South in an agitated and semi-rebellious condition ever since he put forth his "policy."

JOHNSON'S LOGIC.

If we would see the extreme rashness and folly of the President's partisan declarations, wherein he speaks of Congress as an incompetent body, because certain States are not represented in it, we have only to carry them out to their logical sequence.

If this reasoning is correct, then Congress fell into that condition the moment the eleven rebel States tore themselves away from the Union and recalled their representatives, and we have had no Congress since. Then the whole national debt is invalid, and the national securities worthless. Then every enactment of Congress since 1861 is as null and void as are the ordinances of secession. Then the second election of Mr. LINCOLN was no election at all. ANDREW JOHNSON never was Vice President of the United States, and consequently is not now the President. The logic, when carried out, cannot stop short of this. If the secession of the rebels worked such disasters as these, it was more successful than any of us supposed it was.

MISSIONARY MATTERS.

The American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions has just held its annual meeting in Pittsfield, Massachusetts, at which it was computed over two thousand persons were present from abroad, and hospitality was taxed to its utmost. We glean from various sources some interesting items.

Rev. Dr. Hopkins, President of Williams College, occupied the Chair. The report opened with a reference to the honored persons who had died during the past year. Thirteen names were announced, among whom were Rev. Dr. Nott, Rev. Dr. Brainard, and M. W. Baldwin, Esq. At this point Rev. Dr. Barnes, of Philadelphia, arose and stated that the name of Rev. Dr. Porter, late of Farmington, Conn., must be added to that remarkable list. It is a noticeable fact that it was in his parlor, in that same town, where Dr. Porter has remained pastor so long, that the American Board was organized in 1810. It appears from the report that the income from all sources for the past year amounted to $446,492.44. The number of missions, stations and out-stations makes a total of 545. Number of laborers sent from this country, 312; native laborers, 815; total, 1,127. There are two establishments which have printed 13,649,826 pages. Number of churches, 194, and members, 24,630. The additions of the latter during the past year reach well nigh 900. The educational department shows the following: Theological schools, 16; other boarding schools, 17; free these schools, 10,901.

The annual sermon was preached by Rev. Dr. Hickok, President of Union College, from Phil., 11:10, 11. "That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow." An event occurred, which had a thrilling effect on the vast concourse, on the occasion of the resignation of Rev. Dr. Rufus Anderson, now seventy years of age, who was taken into the service of the Board from the Theological Seminary in 1822, and has been Corresponding Secretary since 1832. The addresses on the occasion by distinguished ministers and laymen, were alike creditable to the head and heart. At the close of the speeches, Mr. Alpheus Hardy, a merchant of Boston, on behalf of the business men of that city and thereabouts, presented Dr. Anderson with the sum of ten thousand dollars. Mr. Oliver E. Wood, a merchant of New York, announced that a number of merchants of that city, had raised a similar sum for Dr. A. Hon. W. E. Dodge stated in the concluding remarks that these twenty thousand dollars would yield Dr. A. about twelve hundred dollars, which they considered his half pay.

Prominent among the topics before the Board was the interference of Bishop Staley with the missions in the Sandwich Islands. This called forth the earnest protest of the Board, as uncourteous and unkind. Action was taken on the State of the country, urging the education of the freedmen.

Here is another picture of missionary work by one of the most influential bodies in the land. The thirty-first annual meeting of the Board of Missions of the Protestant Episcopal Church convened some days since in New York. The annual sermon was preached by the Rt. Rev. Bishop Lay.

Much of the proceedings of the body were of a routine character, still several points of general interest were discussed and action taken, worthy of reproducing here in a condensed form. Shortly after its sittings commenced, Bishop Kerfoot, of Pittsburgh Diocese, introduced a resolution urging the claims of the Colored Orphan Asylum in Tennessee, upon the Freedmen's Commission. After some remarks the whole matter was referred to the Committee on the Freedmen's Commission Report, who kindly assumed the work of caring for the noble object proposed by the Bishop. Bishop Quintard, of Tennessee, exhorted the Convention to come up the work, but rather thought too much attention was given to the secular instruction of the freedmen. He said he believed the right way to proceed was to prepare colored men for the ministry, and expected soon to ordain a colored deacon.

Considerable feeling was aroused in the Board, after the reading of the report of the Foreign Committee of the Board, in relation to its action in regard to the Mission at the Sandwich Islands. Bishop Kerfoot, of Pittsburgh, took strong ground against the action of the Committee, not only in refusing to and Bishop Staley, but for not expressing sympathy for him in his work. Subsequently he offered a resolution in favor of expressing sympathy with Bishop Staley and his work, commending it to the support of the people generally. Bishops Lee and McIlvaine objected to the resolution. The latter spoke at length, stating that the action of last year was distasteful to him, and had remained so ever since, though he did not have an opportunity to register his disapproval. Finally, at the urgent request of Bishop Potter, the resolution was withdrawn. This course, sustaining the action of the Foreign Committee, leaves the cause of Bishop Staley for the voluntary action of individuals.

The Greek Mission occupied considerable discussion. The debate, though lengthy, was conducted in a courteous manner. The matter, however, was finally placed in the hands of the Foreign Committee.

UNPARALLELED EFFRONTERY.

Mr. FLINT, the offending correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger, exhibits the nervousness of a novice in wrong-doing. Arraigned simultaneously at the desk of his employer and the bar of public opinion for publishing as genuine an important document, the authenticity of which he cannot substantiate, he endeavors to explain, and does it so bunglingly, that he is forced to explain his explanation. This, so far from mending his case, only serves to make it worse. Instead of extricating himself, he gets still more entangled in the meshes of his fabrication. This is singular, considering he had full before him a recent instance of the heroic handling of the same sort of perplexities. When the President was criminated in so mutilating one of Gen. SHERIDAN'S dispatches as to involve the moral guilt of forgery—nay, when the act was brought as clearly to his door as this later act of the same kind is to the door of Mr. FLINT, he answered not a word. He maintained a stoical silence, which admitted of no other interpretation than perfect indifference. That shows an adept in this sort of thing; the hand of a master which no exposure can trepidate; a trained mind that spurns all impertinent catechising. Mr. FLINT, having taken so eminent a personage for a model, blundered in not making his imitation complete in all particulars. Perhaps, however, something ought to be pardoned of the crudity of a first essay. Further practice may develop in him an impassivity equal to the original, after whom he patterned.

—Mr. Doran, through the Pall Mall Gazette, asks Englishmen to restore Hucknall Tos Kaw Church, in which lie buried the bodies of Lord Byron, his mother and "Ada, solely daughter of my home and heart."

MISSISSIPPI.

The Legislature of this State assembled a few days ago, and Governor HUMPHREY sent in his message. It is a gloomy document. The only bright speck he can see in the political landscape is the removal of the colored troops from the State. He speaks of "that small cloud of fanaticism that rose in the East, at first no larger than a man's hand," having overspread the land with its "portentous blackness," and destroyed "the rights and property (slavery) of a portion of the States of the Union," and then pitches into the Constitutional amendment thus:

"The Radical Congress has enacted laws and proposed amendments to the Constitution which, if adopted, will destroy the rights of the State and of the people, and centralize all the powers of Government in the Federal head. * * * * * This amendment, adopted by a Congress of less than three-fourths of the States of the Union, in palpable violation of the rights of more than one-fourth of the States, is such an insulting outrage and denial of the equal rights of so many of our worthiest citizens who have shed lustre and glory upon our section and our race, both in the forum and in the field, such a gross usurpation of the rights of the State, and such a centralization of power in the Federal Government, that I presume a mere reading of it will cause its rejection by you."

Very well; the Union can do without Mississippi's representation in Congress as long as Mississippi can do without the Union; and if she must be treated as a judicious parent would treat a refractory child, be it so. And should she undertake to show her independence and chivalry by abusing the most helpless portion of her population, she will be put under yet closer bonds.

THE GREAT ACCLIMATING

TONIC—Wherever HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, the celebrated American prevention of Climate Diseases, have been introduced into unhealthy regions, their effects in sustaining the health, vigor and animal spirits of those whose pursuits subjected them to extraordinary risks from exposure and privation, have been wonderful. In the Army and Navy of this and other countries every other invigorating and alterative medicine has become so manifest where used, that it is relied upon, exclusively, as a protection against Bilious Fever, Fever and Ague, and Bowel complaints of every kind. The soldiers say it is the ONLY stimulant which produces and keeps up a healthy habit of body in unwholesome locations. For the unacclimated pioneer and settler it is the most reliable of all safeguards against sickness. Throughout the United States it is considered the most healthful and agreeable of all tonics, and altogether unequaled as a remedy for Dyspepsia. The medicinal ingredients are all vegetable, and are not misapplication by the most wholesome stimulant known—the Essence of Rye.

HOSTETTER'S BITTERS

Are manufactured at Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and no less than 50,000 dozen bottles are sold annually by druggists.

THE BUSINESS MAN'S

Favorite College

FOR THE LAST

TWENTY-SIX YEARS.

The Only Institution,

Of the Kind, IN THE UNION, conducted by a practical BUSINESS MAN. Our highest commercial authorities, east and west, pronounce his system of Book-Keeping unequalled; comprehending every department of business, and yet so faithfully condensed that the attentive students master the whole in six or eight weeks, which consists of

Stock Books,

Closed once with a loss and twice with a gain, exhibiting, by three different methods, the transfer of old to new books.

Partnership Books,

Conducted by three different methods, exhibiting the transfer of old to new books, with the introduction of a new partner; also practically illustrating the

Private Ledger,

By means of which the results of the business are kept of the general books, for the use of the partners only, at the settlement of Partnership Books by

Single Entry,

With six practical illustrations, exhibiting the Books reopened by Double Entry. Our course of original lectures upon the details of

Actual Business,

Are, to one going into business on his own account, worth more than his tuition fee, and may save him thousands of dollars in experimental knowledge, that may take years to acquire in business. In these lectures we have no competitor, as none but an experienced merchant can impart the practical information which they contain. It will also be seen by examination of other Partnership Accounts, that Duff's is the only one in use containing comprehensive exercises in Business With Foreign Countries.

No other modern treatise contains a single exercise in this business. Pupils instructed from them are, therefore, left totally deficient in this department of American Commerce. Our system, thus expanded into fields of business wholly omitted by all others, enables us to present our students with a comprehensive and valuable collection of

Business Forms

For every department of inland and foreign business. Our method of teaching the detection of

Counterfeit Bank Notes,

By comparison of an extensive collection of counterfeit and genuine notes, is recognized by our patrons in all directions as a valuable part of their business education.

Our Railroad Book-Keeping

(in manuscript,) exhibits the construction and equipment, the operating receipts and expenditures of the Book closed and a dividend recorded. These Books are advertised by others, but not taught elsewhere in the city. Our new system of

Private Bank Books,

(in manuscript,) embracing all the best forms in use among private Bankers. Our new enlarged edition of DUFF'S

Steamboat Book-Keeping.

In this department students are instructed from the new revised and enlarged edition of "DUFF'S STEAMBOAT BOOK-KEEPING," the only complete treatise upon this part of the science published.

Our full course of business practice includes about FIFTY FINISHED BOOKS, recorded in about thirty different forms, viz: 11 Ledgers, 7 Day-books, 3 Journals, 6 Blank Books, 4 Sales Books, 2 Invoice Books, 1 Discount Book, 1 Check Register, 1 Deposit Register, 2 Collection Registers, 1 Tickler, 1 Bank Register, 1 Freight Book, 2 Cash Books, and 1 Fuel Book. These books practically record about six hundred business transactions, comprehending Duff's original plan of business education introduced twenty-five years ago. How far others have succeeded in imitating him will be best seen by comparing the business papers and books of their pupils with those of the graduates of this Institution.

DUFF'S BOOK-KEEPING.

OCULAR

AND

AND

Physician for Diseases of the Respiratory Organs,

HAS TAKEN ROOMS AT THE

Merchants' Hotel,

Where he will be prepared to practice the most recent and scientific system of MEDICINE and SURGERY, for the alleviation of suffering humanity.

ALL DISEASES OF THE

EYE AND EAR

AND THE ORGANS OF THE CHEST

TREATED WITH THE UTMOST SUCCESS.

Embracing all Acute and Chronic Maladies of the Eye, Blindness, Cross Eye, Falling of the Eyelid, Catarrh, etc., Deafness, Roaring and Buzzing in the Ears, Discharge from the Face, etc., Diseases of the Nose, Catarrh, Bronchitis, Asthma, Consumption and Affections of the Heart and Stomach.

HEALTH IS THE HIGHEST BLESSING!

Man will give all he has for relief from disability and pain. Yet thousands suffer for a long series of years, and linger out a useless life, who, with proper treatment, might be restored to health and contribute to the health and happiness of others. But the fault is not with the patient, for he tries persistently the various Doctors and

QUACK NOSTRUMS

For relief, and finds it not. The reason is, the general physician has but little time to inform himself in regard to the improvements in medicine and surgery. Many physicians know but little of the causes of disease, and are consequently ignorant of cure, with but a limited opportunity for extensive study, and confined in their observations to a small circle of country, they cannot expect to become expert in all diseases. A scientific and practical performance must result from long study and extensive research in respect to special diseases. Of this fact medical men of this county and all the countries of Europe are aware; and the ablest practitioners are giving their best energies to special diseases. They have mastered the laws of life and health—marked the pathological changes in disease—and found safe and effectual remedies. To long and patient study of the diseases of the

EYE, EAR,

Throat, Lungs and Chest,

And his discoveries of new remedies and new applications of old ones, DR. ABORN owes his unparalleled success in curing diseases that have long baffled all previous treatment. And his dexterous and delicate surgical operations on the Eye, Ear, &c.,

Are the fruits of his exact knowledge of Anatomy and an extensive practice of his art as surgeon of the Eye and Ear Infirmary of San Francisco, Cal., and as Physician and Surgeon-in-Chief of the Nashville Medical and Surgical Institute. The most disspairing Invalids will be encouraged to hope for cure on visiting his rooms and witnessing the numerous testimonials and evidence of his skill.

CATARRH.

Catarrh of the head is the commonest of diseases. In its early stages it is scarcely noticed. The patient complains a little of cold in the head, but heeds not the warning; or, if he does, he is likely to annoy himself and his thousand and one specifics are recommended by a regiment of self-styled doctors or grandames. And so the disease runs on, till it results in Chronic Coryza, Gravedo, or general Ozena. Then comes the annoying symptoms of lassitude, painful limbs, aching back, dullness across the forehead, corrupt discharges, profuse lachrymation, hoarseness, sore throat, furred tongue, nausea, loss of appetite, and general debility. If the disease is not soon arrested the throat becomes inflamed by the putrid discharges, the bronchi irritated, and the lungs poisoned by the inhalation of air passing over the diseased part; about twenty thousand times a day, and precipitate into the disgusting effluvia. A cough soon ensues, which, aggravated by the filthy head, accumulations spitting forward, continues until the lungs give way, and fatal Consumption closes the scene. The slightest cold in the head, therefore, should receive attention. Take care at this stage it is easy; but if allowed to become chronic catarrh, it requires the best skill and a long time to cure it. Many patients laboring under this terrible malady have looked in vain for help. Such should know that Dr. ABORN has had extensive experience in the speedy relief, and to result finally in a complete cure.

OTORRHŒA.

This disease is distinguished by a purulent, or mucopurulent discharge from the ear, which is only a symptom of the real disease. Many suffer through life with the mistaken impression that it cannot be cured, or because some wonderful prodigy has promised a cure, which fails to arrest the discharge they continue to drink the poison in the system to break out in some more dangerous part. The stupidity of this humbugged public is baffled. What keeps open a sluice way for running off corrupt humors, or cleanse the fountain that the filthy stream may dry up? A doubtful question, which can only be decided by a competent knowledge of the nature and causes of this disease, will eradicate it in a short time, not only without injury but with a remarkable improvement of the general health. The causes of this affection are inflammation of the throat, nose, exanthematous diseases, from polypi, from granulations of the membrana tympani, scrofula, &c. In fact, the most frequent cause of this complaint and all the disease of the ear may be ascribed to a simple polypus, it can easily be removed and with as little danger as the extirpation of a wart on the hand. Scrofula is the cause of the destruction of the membrana tympani in a majority of cases; and if the inflammation is the result of a scrofulous condition or a malignant poison, the eyes have to be lost and the cachexia and the cause ceases. Thus a safe cure is effected. The different varieties and causes of this troublesome complaint may be learned at DR. ABORN'S rooms, and

(ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS ON FIRST PAGE.)

United States District Court.

Yesterday morning, at 10 o'clock, the United States District Court met as usual, Judge McCandless occupying the bench.

The case of Martin L. Stewart, of Indiana county indicted for passing, and having in his possession, intending to pass, counterfeit fractional currency, of the denomination of fifty cents, was resumed. Our readers will remember that on Wednesday Stewart's case was called up, but the defendant did not come into Court for the reason, as was set forth in an affidavit, that he had sprained his ankle and was unable to travel. The Court did not appear to think the excuse a valid one, and a process was issued for Stewart's arrest, and placed in the hands of detective Jones, who had made the first arrest, for execution. The officer left the city on the Johnstown Accommodation train, and on his arriving at Homer station, on the Indiana branch was unable to secure any conveyance to take him to Stewart's residence. Determined not to be thwarted in his object, the officer started on foot, and after a walk of fifteen miles, found himself at his destination. He was rewarded for his fatigue by finding the object of his search at the house, Stewart was somewhat surprised at the unexpected visit, but concluded that as the request for his presence in this city was imperative it was better for him to come. The officer returned home on Thursday with Stewart in charge, and the prisoner was immediately placed on trial. The evidence adduced by the prosecution, was to the effect that a considerable amount of counterfeit fractional currency was found on the person of the defendant after his arrest, and that while on a train on the Pennsylvania railroad, from Johnstown to Pittsburgh, he had offered some of the stuff to conductor, to the train boy and to a life insurance agent. The testimony for the defense was principally confined to the previous good character of the accused, a number of persons being examined on this point.

The next case taken up was that of the United States vs. George H. Wilton, of Pittsburgh, Pa., impleaded with James Irwin and Edward Shattuck. A verdict for the plaintiff was rendered by the jury for the sum of $10 25, with interest from September 12, 1865.

United States vs. Neill McCool, impleaded with James Lee and Andrew W. Cox. The jury found a verdict for the plaintiff for the sum of $62 20, with interest from January 25d, 1865.

The Grand Jury returned a true bill in the case of Sally Chappell, indicted for secreting and embezzling letters from the mail. The case, on application, was continued until the next special term of the Court, and the defendant required to enter bail in the sum of $3,000 for her appearance for trial at time.

The Grand Jury ignored the bills against John R. and B. F. Packard, charged with making false returns of income, and the defendants were discharged by proclamation.

Court adjourned.

A Pittsburgher Murdered—Arrest of the Supposed Assassin.

Mr. D. E. Smith, formerly of this city, but more recently of Columbus, O., was inhumanly murdered at Gallion, Ohio, on Friday night last. He left Columbus some two weeks since and came to this city, where he sojourned for a few days, visiting friends, and then proceeded to Perry county, in the centre of the State, to see some of his relatives residing there. He left this city on Monday and arrived at Gallion early Tuesday morning on his return to Columbus. He stopped at Gallion to call on a young lady to whom the citizens supposed he was engaged to be married. It appears, however, that the lady was engaged to a man named Fitch, a brakesman on the Atlantic and Great Western Railroad. This engagement had been broken off, Fitch swearing vengeance on certain parties. Mr. Smith, it appears, was the rival of this Fitch. He called on the lady at her residence on Tuesday evening, and on his return to the hotel about eleven o'clock was assaulted while walking along the street by some person or persons, who struck him a blow on the head with a slung shot, and his face horribly mangled. He was walking with his hands in his pockets and fell forward on the face without removing the hands. The blow of the assailant and the death groan of the victim were heard by a young lady and a gentleman walking on the same street. They returned immediately to where the body lay. The young lady fled in alarm and soon aroused families living near. The man Fitch was encountered by her companion soon afterward in the vicinity and questioned as to the murder, and was finally charged with being the murderer. He was afterward arrested and almost certain evidence of guilt discovered. Smith's watch and money had been taken from his person when discovered by the citizens as noted above. Fitch had an examination on Thursday, which resulted in his being committed for trial.

Supreme Court.

The Supreme Court met at the usual hour yesterday morning, with Chief Justice Woodward and Judges Thompson, Strong and Read present.

J. Scott Ferguson, on motion of Robert Woods, Esq., and Noah W. Shafer, on motion of J. W. White, Esq., were duly admitted and qualified to practice in the Supreme Court.

O'Connor vs. Pittsburgh Grain Elevator Company; C. P. Argued by A. M. Brown for plaintiff in error, and by Hopkins, contra.

Barnhill vs. Haigh; C. P. Argued by A. M. Brown for plaintiff in error, and by Barton contra.

Lance vs. Griner; C. P. Submitted by Woods for plaintiff in error and by Collier, contra.

Featherstone vs. Hospehilde; D. C. Argued by Mellon for plaintiff in error, and by A. M. Brown, contra.

Corbett vs. Lewis et. al.; D. C. Argued by Lucas for plaintiff in error. Court declined hearing Barton, contra.

Mundoff vs. Dorland and Finkbine; D. C. Argued by Lucas for plaintiff in error, and by J. W. Wilson, contra.

Kerr vs. Kerr's Ex'r; C. P. Argued by Bruce for plaintiff in error, and by Smith, contra.

Court adjourned.

Wilberforce University.

In 1863 the African Methodists purchased the site of a fashionable watering place near Xenia, Ohio, comprising fifty acres of land, a large hotel and several auxiliary improvements. The hotel was converted into a University, and flourishing schools established. Unfortunately this principal building was burned in April, 1865. This loss was almost fatal to the infant enterprise, but the Trustees have determined to rebuild, and have delegated a colored gentleman, the Rev. J. A. Shorter, to visit this city and vicinity to ask contributions in aid of their laudable enterprise, which engages the zealous labors of Bishop Payne, the President of the University, and is earnestly commended to the sympathy and patronage of benevolent men by no less eminent persons than Chief Justice Chase and General Saxton, who have consented to act as Trustees. We bespeak for Mr. Shorter a kind reception and the generous help of our citizens upon whom he is about to call. Remember the Poor. God loveth liberal givers.

A Waif on the Sea of Humanity.

A few evenings since a female child, apparently but a few weeks old, was found upon the doorstep of Mr. Perry Gormley's residence, in New Castle, Lawrence county. The child had a piece of paper on its clothing on which was written, "Anna P. Lacock, Washington, Washington county, Pa." The waif was handed over to Mr. Cubbison, Overseer of the Poor, who has it now in charge. It is pronounced a handsome and interesting child, such an one as only a soulless, heartless mother would thus abandon. The name attached is doubtless fictitious, intended to put the public upon the wrong scent, in the event of an attempt to trace the origin of the little one. It is to be hoped that some charitably disposed person may adopt this little charge, that it may not become an outcast, and perhaps follow in the path of sin trodden by the heartless one who has thus abandoned it in its utter helplessness to the child charities of the world.

Cholera in Waynesburg.

The Waynesburg Messenger say: We regret to learn that two of our best citizens have fallen victims to the cholera—Thomas Alfrey and John Price, both of Jefferson township. Mr. Alfrey, some ten days ago, having been at Pittsburgh, was taken suddenly ill on the boat, on his road home, and died in a very short time after his arrival at home. It was not known, certainly, till after his death, that he died with the cholera. Mr. Price, his near neighbor, assisted in laying out the corpse, and took the disease, and died in the course of a day or two. We are gratified to learn the disease has not spread, and that no other cases are known to exist although over a week has passed since Mr. Price's death.

How to Wear the Hair—The Fall Fashions.—Our lady readers, now that the summer styles are over, will be interested to know that during the fall season, curls, without the waterfall, will be worn for full dress. The front hair is arranged in water curls, or in wavy puffs, but this is not becoming to all styles of features. There are several modes of arranging the waterfall—to suit the fancy of the wearer. It may be composed of several small puffs, or two or three narrow bands crossing it, which gives it the appearance of puffs. But coils are ruled out sometime since, and though occasionally we see one defying the flat of fashion, yet they are decidedly out of style.

Hit with a Cod Fish.—Annie Jackson came to the office of Alderman Morrow yesterday and made oath against Caroline Nesbitt for assault and battery. The deponent alleges that Caroline struck her over the head and shoulders with a large cod fish, which she had just purchased at Barkley's grocery, in the seventh ward. A warrant was issued for her who thus dexterously wielded the odorous piscatorial.

EARLY TELEGRAMS.

The Bogus "Ledger" Distatch—Card From Flint.

PHILADELPHIA, October 19.—A dispatch dated New York, October 19th, says: Henry W. Flint, the author of the Ledger dispatch, publishes an explanatory card in the Herald of to-day. He says:

"On the 6th and 7th instants I learned that the subject of the extent of the powers and duties of the President under the Constitution, in relation to the exclusion of the Southern members of Congress, and in relation to the legal and constitutional status of the present Congress, was occupying a great deal of the President's attention. On the 8th and 9th I sought more definite information on this subject from two gentlemen to whom I have been in the habit of going when I wish to verify any doubtful point, or to get a tangled piece of news unraveled. They are men whose friendship I have proved and tried, and which I value, and I have learned in my intercourse with them that they are not only truthful and reliable, but that a remarkable faculty and being able to get at the truth of almost any alleged matter of Washington news, of detecting errors, and of distinguishing mere rumors from actual matters of fact. From one of these gentlemen I learned that the President, in quite a recent conversation with an intimate friend, had dwelt at some length upon this subject, and had recurred to what he had said in his speeches and messages upon it, and had remarked that he had said nothing lightly or unconsidered, and that what he had said, he would stand by, and that whatever might be his duty, that he will not shrink from performing it, but that he would take no step in the matter without consulting the Attorney General, and, I think, it was added, that he intended to do so. From the other I learned that it was per had been in the Attorney General's office, with the printed heading, "Executive Mansion," containing a series of questions in relation to the actual status under the Constitution of the present Congress, and the nature and extent of the powers and duties of the President in relation to Congress, both as regards the present Congress and rights of the Southern States to representation. With these facts clearly impressed upon my mind, and believing them to be true, I returned home and thought over the matter and wrote out the question. The data which I had before me was ample. The words of the questions had not been furnished me, but I had before me the subject to which they related, and the alleged fact that they had covered the whole ground in relation to that subject. It is true that the questions might have been written by some one else; might have been in the Attorney General's office by accident; might never have been seen by either the President or the Attorney General; but the natural inference was that the questions had been officially sent to the Attorney General, and with that idea I impressed upon my mind as a fact I wrote out the questions."

From Washington—Prospective Treaty with Mexico—Secretary Stanton.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—A special Washington dispatch to the Boston Journal, of yesterday morning, states that treaties with the Imperial Government of Mexico have been agreed upon, and are now under process of exchange. The French troops and Maximilian will withdraw this year from Mexico. The United States assumes the protectorate of the Republic, guaranteeing the French claims. In consideration Mexico cedes to the United States the peninsula of Lower California and other territory south of our present south-west boundary.

A Herald's Washington special says: Senor Don Romero has advices which lead him to doubt the report of the defeat of Escabado by the Imperialists.

The Times' special still insists that Mr. Stanton has tendered his resignation, and significant a desire to go as Minister to Spain, as soon as Gen. Sherman's command can be heard from.

The President will accept the resignation of R. W. Corwin, United States District Attorney.

The New York Central Railroad.

NEW YORK, October 19.—The Herald's Albany special says: There was an important meeting of the directors of the New York Central Railroad held to-day, at which the chief question of discussion was, who shall control this immense corporation? It appears that deeply interested parties have run up the stock from 90 to 119; the latter being today's price. The entire capital stock is $42,000,000. The party technically known as the South Shore party, made up of Western railroad men, hold about $5,000,000 of the stock; an express company some $5,000,000, and other properties large amounts.

New candidates for the Presidency have come to the surface since I last had occasion to investigate the subject, in September, among whom are Gov. Y. Fenton, Erastus Corning, Alonzo C. Paige, Commodore Vanderbilt and his son-in-law, Horace F. Clay, and Cornelius L. Tracy, of Troy.

The Baltimore Police Commissioners.

NEW YORK, October 19.—Concerning the Baltimore Police Commissioners' case, the same Herald's special says: It is said that the Governor acknowledges that this injustice has been done by the Judges at the recent election, and will take the matter into serious consideration and act prior to the November election. The Radicals are very much excited, and threaten forcible resistance in case the Commissioners are removed. In view of the fact that they are greatly in the minority here, they have threatened that aid will be obtained from Pennsylvania. A bad feeling exists, which may lead to more important disorders than those of a local character.

BALTIMORE, October 19.—Governor Swann has summoned the Police Commissioners to answer the charges preferred against them on Monday next, at 10 o'clock. Due notice was served on them last night.

Unseaworthiness of the Evening Star

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—The surviving sailors of the ill-fated steamer Evening Star, which foundered at sea on the 24 inst., whereby two hundred and fifty lives were lost, made some statements yesterday regarding the unseaworthiness of that vessel. In her unservicable condition she went to sea with but little more than a half a crew.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—The game for the base ball championship, between the Atlantic, of Brooklyn, and Mutuals, of New York, played at Bedford, was won by the former club, by a score of 31 to 24.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

FRIDAY, October 19, 1866.

The New York stock quotations to-day, as reported by Robinson, McClean & Co., were as follows: Gold, 143⅞; 1881's, 113½; 5-20's, old, 114⅞; do new, 110⅝; 10-40's, 99⅝; 7-30's, 1st series, 106⅝; do 2d and 3d, 106. Michigan Southern, R. R., 99½; Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 92¾; (advance ½) Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago, 110¾; (advance 1) Erie R. R., 84⅝; (rise 2⅝) Western Union Telegraph Company, 54½; Chicago & Rock Island, 108¾; Chicago & North Western, 49¼; (advance 4 per cent) do preferred, 75¾.

The market has improved to some extent on Governments, in sympathy with an easy money market here, and at the east. Gold exhibits but little change from yesterday—opens a fraction higher. It seems impossible to give a sensible reason, aside from speculation in the gold rooms of the large cities, why gold should maintain anything like the present quotations, much less advance against the largely increasing deposits in the Sub-Treasury. It was semi-officially reported at the Treasury Department at Washington yesterday that there was then ninety-three million dollars of gold in hand, which would be increased, in all probability, to one hundred millions by the first of November. We may be at fault on our estimate, but we believe gold will before the 10th of November decline five per cent from present quotations, perhaps much more. A few days since the Government paid out $800,000 for the purchase of United States bonds of 1868, causing a decline of six per cent on the street. The slightest of rumors will upset the calculations of the gold ring, what then will happen when twenty-five millions of November coupons are paid, and the Secretary takes other methods to relieve the Treasury of the large amount of idle coin on hand by the redemption of greenbacks, which may happen any day. Holders of November coupons have but ten days in which to calculate their chances of high premiums.

Our local stock market has been remarkably quiet throughout the week, considering the easy state of the mony market. There has been but little done in bank stocks, but a few shares offering, and those held at figures quite above the views of buyers. Valley Railroad stock is firmly held at 20@25 per share, with none offering. $5 per share bid for Pittsburgh & Steubenville. Columbia oil closes a shade steadier—10½ bid, 16¾ asked—no sales reported to-day.

The Boston Stock Board is again active in Coppers. Almost the entire list has advanced some, the most marked improvement is in Copper Falls, and Northwestern. Large sales of the former at prices ranging from 47 (which is 62 per share advance) to 48, buyer 30 days. Northwestern, sales 400 shares at 47½, being one dollar per share advance. Franklin is up again—sales at 58. Rockland weak at 7. Pewabic, (b. 30) 36—an improvement. Minnesota firmer; sales at 19¼. Pittsburgh & Boston, no sales; 30½ bid, 32 asked. Quincy, sales at 50. National heavy; no bids, offered at 17.

The Treasury book of the Atlantic and Pacific Telegraph Co. are still open at the Banking House of Robinson, McClean & Co., 75 Fourth street. But a moity of the stock allotted to Pittsburgh remains to be taken.

—It is denied that the Government has been selling gold at New York, at least the statement wants official confirmation; but under the apprehension that it was being sold the price went down on Tuesday at one time to 147—a difference of 8 per cent from the opening price of Monday. The lower rates, however, were mainly in consequence of weak holders being compelled to realize. The lending rate was ⅜ per cent. With the ease of money and the rate for it, 4 to 5 per cent., there are some who are disposed to hold back for higher rates, upon the supposition that in the end the Government selling gold in important amounts of currency may be withdrawn into the Treasury. Any partial stringency, however, which might arise from this course would be neutralized by the maturing of $22,500,000 of clearing-house certificates on the 26th instant. The ease of money results chiefly, it is thought, from the late disbursements of the Treasury for funding, and these payments come in good time to meet the strain usual at this season by advances necessary to move the cotton and grain crops. The policy of the Treasury seems to be to promote the ease of the money market and turn speculation in the direction of the Government bonds, and thus promote the conversion of the five-twenty loans. It is stated that several considerable parcels of 6s of 1867-8 have been offered at the Treasury for gold and accepted, and as an evidence that gold is coming on the market from some source—cash gold for the past two days has been more abundant.

—It is said that a forthcoming report of the Treasury will show that the expenditures of the government in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1866, were about seven hundred million dollars less than in the previous fiscal year. The payments of the premium on exchange, sales of gold, &c., in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1866, is nearly forty-two million dollars.

—Thompson's Bank Note Reporter says:

The government examiners of the national banks are now in various parts of the country, and it is but proper to say that banking, as a system, and as a science, is beginning to attain a standard and body and uniformity never before attained in this country. These examiners receive their commissions and instructions from the currency bureau of the Treasury Department at Washington, and of course their duties are well defined. They are to report to the Comptroller of the currency the management as well as the standing of the banks—all the looseness of book-keeping—all irregularities in cash accounts—all omissions in detail, as well as soundness of assets. Under this discipline a great rapid change is taking place in the banking institutions of the country. They must be systematic as well as legal in their business. Everything must be correct as well as safe. A good many banks have been found deficient in the knowledge of book-keeping, so that they could make no creditable exhibit, while their assets would pass inspection. Some have assets made up of stock notes or something very like them. All such loose banking the examiners shut down on. This is a hint to the uninitiated. Put your banking house in order, and keep it so.

—There is a steady conversion of 7-30s into 5-20s of the July and January issues, but the amount is altogether too small in proportion to the necessity which exists for getting this troublesome debt out of the way prior to the resumption of specie payments, which cannot be safely attempted until they are put into long gold-bearing bonds. This class of debt was put upon the country by the mistakes (called at the time necessities) of the Treasury Department, and forced into every town and village by the most elaborate system of advertising and commendation ever bestowed upon a loan, backed, too, by commissions that secured the services of every broker and banker throughout the country. Sustained upon by $700,000,000 of irredeemable greenbacks in the form of legal-tenders and National Bank notes, popularly called money, they commanded a common with the bonds into which they are convertible, a premium in currency, and into these at maturity in 1867 and 1868 (all will inevitably find themselves, leaving the Treasury to fund or pay the interest on the compound notes, $155,000,000, and some of the $400,000,000 of legal-tenders, and drift to where specie payments can be enforced, but the interest of the country demands that Congress and the Treasury should do something more than drift to specie; they must boldly prepare the finances to the gold standard, and by the most energetic means bring the legal tender money up to gold. This can be done effectually by resorting to the means by which the 7-30s are sold, and by paying to any one who will surrender them for 5-20s a commission as large as brokers make in turning over Railway shares, State stocks, or Mining shares, even. The commissions for this service would amount to a good round sum, but it would be paid for a loan indispensable to the nation as the last decisive victories won by the Union armies to end the Rebellion. The sooner Congress gives the Secretary the power to pay larger commissions, and makes it imperative upon him to open them to the public the better.—N. Y. Tribune.

—The New York Herald charges Mr. McCulloch with unduly favoring certain "petbankers" in that city, and giving no show to others in equal if not better standing. The Herald remarks: "The fact that the Treasury has been redeeming sixes of 1867 (at 97,) and sixes of 1868 (at 90,) in gold, to a few of its favorites, gave color to the rumor set afloat by the bears, that it was selling coin. The public has a right to ask why some persons who have the run of the treasury should have their undue bonds redeemed in this secret manner, when the rest of the holders of the same bonds, not similarly acquainted, are not admitted to an equal privilege. There is evident favoritism in this chaotic and discreditable proceeding, and Mr. McCulloch owes it to himself to give a public explanation of the facts. The redemption of the bonds of 1867 payable after December 31, 1867, was, on October 31 of last year, $6,415,200, while that of the bonds of 1868, payable after July 1 is that year, was $6,908,341."

New York Dry Goods Market.

NEW YORK, October 19.—The dry goods trade opens with only a moderate business this morning, but with a continued firmness on the part of holders of goods. The decline in cotton, which is very slight, is mainly to be attributed to the decline in gold, and is not taken as any indication of any more favorable reports from the cotton growing crops. Prices are therefore, maintained and with light stocks of all kinds of domestic goods. There is no pressure to sell at jobbers prices. Brown sheetings, 28½; Broadway, 28½; Atlantic, extra, 23½. Bleached Sheetings—Wamsutta, 40; Lonsdale, 34; Hope, 29. Printa—Cocheco, 24; Amoskeag, 19½; Freeman, 17½; Wamsutta, 15½. Ticking—Hamilton, 37½; Black-stone River, 35. Stripes—Amoskeag, 37½; American, 34.

PITTSBURGH IRON MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, Oct. 19, 1866.

The transactions in metal have been somewhat restricted this week, not that there is any falling off in the demand, but owing to the fact that there is no stock. Desirable brands of Anthracite irons are in very light supply, and compared with last week, prices are a shade higher. Indeed, the stock of all kinds of mill irons is very much reduced, but particularly is this the case in regard to blue brands, and the demand for foundry irons keeps pace with the supply. Manufactured iron is very firm, and tending upward; and Nails have been advanced 50c per keg. It is now intimated some houses are now refusing to fill orders for bar iron at present card rates, and from this it is but fair to infer that some are inclined to advance all round before long. The following is a report of the sales of metal for the week:

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, October 19, 1866.

CRUDE—There is no improvement to note in the demand for Crude, and the market continues dull and inactive, though prices are nominally unchanged—sale of 1000 bbls (40 to 41 gravity) at 13, and quotations may be fairly given at 12, bbls returned, and 18, bbls included—small lots of heavy gravity might possibly bring a fraction more. The stock of Crude in this market, aside from that in tank, is pretty well reduced, though as already stated the demand is light, and holders generally, are anxious to realize, although they cannot do so at present without sustaining a pretty serious loss.

REFINED—There is some inquiry for bonded oil at a slight decline, say 32 to 32½, delivered in Philadelphia; or, 31½ cents to 32 cents, free on board cars here, but thus far, there are no offers to sell at these quotations. We have but a single sale to report to-day, 500 bbls at 33—on Thursday evening there were sales of 1000 bbls at 33, and 500 at 32½. The truth is, the market is pretty well demoralized at present—refiners are unwilling to sell at current rates, and they do not seem inclined to buy freely in the face of a declining market for Refined. Free is dull and neglected with a drooping tendency.

RESIDUUM—There is little or no demand for this article, and the stock on hand is large—has not been a single sale that we are aware of. We quote nominally at 3½ per bbl.

ARRIVALS—But a single arrival reported, 222 bbls for J. W. Porter.

New York Produce Market.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Cotton heavy, including government sales at 40c for middling uplands, and 42c do for New Orleans. Flour 10@15c better, and rather more doing, at $8,50@10,65 for extra State, $10,60@12,10 for extra H O, and $12,20@13,90 for trade brands, closing firm with no sellers at inside quotations; included in the sales are 3,000 bbls rejected extra State for export at about $9,00. Whisky quiet and steady in bond at $2,41@2,42. Wheat 1@3c better, at $1,95 for old Chicago spring, $2,25@2,28 for new do, and $3,10 for new white Colorado. Rye active and 1@2c better, at $1,12@1,18 for old western, and $1,20½ for mixed do. Barley 1c better, at $1,14 @1,18 for No 2, rowed, State, $1,20@1,32 for Canada West, and $1,60 for Canada East, in bond, closing dull. Barley Malt in moderate request, at $1,40@1,50, the latter for Canada West. Corn receipts, 22,418 bush, at 90@91,00 for mixed western, $1,02 for shipping mixed western in store, and $1,00@1,03 for do, afloat, closing a little heavy. Oat receipts, 24,442 bush; dull; 1c lower; 29,000 bush at 58@62c for Jersey, 59@62c for Canada West, and 61,00
